

Welcome to Mariners Point RV Campground 2021 Rules, Regulations & Policies for Seasonal Campers

The following policies have been set to ensure the comfort, enjoyment, and safety of our guests. Please ensure that you and your guests understand them. Your stay may be terminated immediately, without refund, if these rules are not respected. Registered campers are responsible for the conduct of their guests at all times and will be held financially responsible for any damages caused to property or equipment of the park.

Dates of Operation

The campground is open from the first Friday in May and closes at noon the last Sunday in October.

Seasonal Campers

Seasonal sites are for the exclusive use of the renter and registered family subject to the following:

- Seasonal fees are payable by cash, cheque, or e-transfer.
- Fees must be paid in full at the start of the season.
- Use of your site by unregistered guests is NOT PERMITTED unless the registered camper is present. We cannot be responsible for your RV or the people in it.
- At no time will persons 19 years of age or under be allowed to overnight on a seasonal site unless the person who paid for the site is present.
- The registered site owner is the person named on the registration you completed when your site was chosen. All guests are subject to a $5.00 minimum additional fee if they are on your site past 9 PM.
- When you are away from your site for an extended period (4 hours or more), please ensure all air conditioners and lights are turned off.
- Use of any external electrical power, (recharging golf carts, outside refrigerators/ freezers, etc.) are subject to a monthly fee over and above your seasonal rate.
- Decks not higher than the level of the lowest floor of your RV are permitted in the area between lots. Any screened tent or enclosed building must be placed in the area behind your RV where it does not interfere with the view of campers in the lots behind you.
- Care of your lot is your responsibility. A lawnmower and weed cutter are available for your use at the Welcome Centre. It is up to the camper to keep their site neat and tidy, that includes near, and under your RV.
- Boats or any other object tied to the boat docks are subject to docking fees as listed on website.

Alcohol and drugs

- Alcohol may be consumed responsibly within the park. Please be considerate of your neighbours.
- The use of any non-prescription drugs including cannabis are strictly prohibited and will be grounds for immediate expulsion from the park without refund.

Visitors

Visitors are welcome between the hours of 10:00 AM to 9:00 PM. A fee of $5.00 is applicable for visitors remaining in the park after 9:00 PM. Anyone visiting on special event days will be required to pay a fee determined for that event.

All visitors must be signed-in at the Welcome Centre by the camper where they are visiting. Campers are responsible for their visitors and visitors are subject to the same rules as the campers. Sites are limited to a maximum total of 10 people including the campers. All visitors must park in the visitor parking at the Welcome Centre.
